If you, family members, or friends have suffered an injury due to a Motor Vehicle Accident, a Construction, Oil/Gas Field, or other Workplace Accident, a Slip and Fall Accident, or suffered other injuries as a result of the Negligence of another person, company, or governmental entity - or as a result of a product malfunction, you may be eligible to claim financial compensation for your injuries, pain and suffering, and losses. As a successful and trusted New Mexico Law Firm, the Law Office of Erlinda Ocampo Johnson is dedicated to defending the rights of injury victims and their families, and passionately fighting for justice for the wrongfully injured. The Law Office of Erlinda Ocampo Johnson understands the difficulties victims endure after suffering from a personal injury and therefore, we provide our legal services for Personal Injury or Wrongful Death on a contingency fee basis.

Throughout the last decade, the Law Office of Erlinda Ocampo Johnson has obtained millions of dollars in compensation for personal injury victims and their families. The Law Office of Erlinda Ocampo Johnson is dedicated to our clients' best interests and will passionately pursue the maximum compensation that you and your family deserve. During your free, no obligation consultation, we will carefully review your claim to determine who is at fault for your accident and can be held liable for your injury and financial losses.

TO GET STARTED, contact the Law Office of Erlinda Ocampo Johnson to schedule a free, no obligation consultation. Our Firm will review your claim and determine if you have a case against the At-Fault Party responsible for causing your injury. There is absolutely no risk in finding out if you may be entitled to compensation. Based on our findings, we will pursue every option available to help you recover the maximum compensation you need to recover from your injury, suffering, and losses.

All too often, the suffering endured by accident victims extends beyond physical and mental injuries. Victims can also suffer from financial burdens from expensive medical treatment and loss of both present and future income if a victim's injury prevents him or her from working.

The Law Office of Erlinda Ocampo Johnson understands that no amount of money can alter what has happened to you. Nevertheless, filing a personal injury claim may help you acquire the compensation you need and deserve to recover from your financial losses.

Through a personal injury claim, you may be able to recover compensation for (but not strictly limited to):

- Past, present, and future medical expenses
- Lost present wages
- Loss of earning capacity and future wages
- Cost of a caregiver or other care services
- Medical equipment
- Rehabilitation
- Property damage

Personal injury claims are often complex legal matters that are difficult for most people to handle alone. Many accident victims require the help of a skilled attorney who has intricate knowledge of personal injury laws and experience working with insurance companies to obtain fair and accurate results.

Far too often, insurance companies will attempt to settle a claim as quickly as possible for the lowest amount of compensation possible. Unfortunately, this offer rarely reflects the true amount the victim's claim is worth. However, the Law Office of Erlinda Ocampo Johnson will work as your advocate during the claims process. Our Firm understands the true value of your claim and will work with the insurance company to help you receive the compensation you deserve.
